Dear Sirs

Your Postal has just reached me, and I note your suggestions which are appreciated for I had looked back some years in your Catalogues, before making the bids - I should not bid on such high priced coins had I known their value

Please change as follows

387	to	$3.00
410	"	" 2.00
481	"	" 3.00
804	"	" 10.00

Hoping this may reach you in time.
and thanking you for kindness remain

Yours truly

There is a great deal of work done in the house of the Lord, and the people are very much interested in the cause of the poor.

Dear Sirs

The bill of sale with Cains did not reach me until the 13th - hence the delay - I have kept the 1808 & 1809 sent on approval but should have proposed a better 1809 at higher price; for it will not better my collection very much, if you would exchange with me later up - can, I should like to return this one Thanking you for your confidence I remain

Dear Sirs

Your letter of the 3rd 5th received and noted.
I am not aware that I estimated the 4th dollar in our own that day from to other conclusions than my Memorandum sent with the Coin called for, and of which I have a copy, that was checked many times with Coin's before sending them to you.
I trust you will find them
